Dear Gregory:

Thank you for your inspirational presentation at our Regional Sales Conference in Bangkok. Our entire team from the Pacific Rim truly enjoyed your motivational messages and left our conference with a very positive attitude. You will be pleased to know that our participants gave you very high ratings on our conference evaluation forms.

I appreciated your taking the time in advance to prepare your presentation and customizing it to our conference theme. Please feel free to use this letter as an endorsement for a job well done! Thanks again.

I hope to see you around Singapore.

Kindest regards,

Jack Rawle
